2. I am a Philadelphia resident.
3. I am employed by the City of Philadelphia Board of Ethics (the “Board”) as an Investigative Analyst.
4. As an Investigative Analyst, my duties include contacting individuals who were required to but did not timely file an annual Statement of Financial Interests, also known as the City Form.
5. In the course of this contact, I alert individuals of their failure to timely file the City Form, the deadline for filing the form before the matter is referred to the Board’s Enforcement division, and the possible consequences of a continued failure to file.
6. I performed this duty with regards to the City Form for calendar year 2024 (“2024 City Form”).
7. Otis Bullock was required to file a 2024 City Form by May 1, 2025, but failed to do so.

12. In addition to repeating the information that Mr. Bullock had still not filed a 2024 City Form as required, the June 13 letter gave a date certain of June 30, 2025 by which Mr. Bullock was to file the overdue 2024 City Form.
13. The letter also informed Mr. Bullock that after June 30, 2025, the matter could only be resolved through the Board’s Enforcement division, that the failure to file a City Form is subject to up to a $2,000 civil monetary penalty, and that matters referred to Enforcement are resolved via public settlement agreement or formal enforcement action.

14. On June 25, 2025, I sent a final email reminder to Mr. Bullock via the email address otisbullock@gpca-phila.org that he had until June 30, 2025 to submit the City Form before the matter would be escalated to Enforcement.
15. As of the close of business on June 30, 2025, Mr. Bullock had not filed a 2024 City Form, and accordingly, the matter was referred to Enforcement.
