Re: Service of Notice of Administrative Enforcement Proceeding

Dear Ryan Boyer:

Enclosed is a Notice of Administrative Enforcement Proceeding ("Notice"). By serving this Notice on you, the Executive Director of the Philadelphia Board of Ethics ("Board") initiates an Administrative Enforcement Proceeding against you. The Executive Director has found there is probable cause to believe that you have violated Philadelphia Code Section 20-610 as interpreted by Board Regulation No. 3 and that the matter is appropriate for an administrative adjudication by the Board. The Executive Director will ask the Board to determine that a violation has occurred and to assess a civil monetary penalty for the violation.

You have the right to respond in writing to the Notice. The written response is due within twenty (20) days of the date of service of the Notice. You have the right to request a hearing before the Board. If you wish to request a hearing, you must include the request in your written response to the Notice. If you fail to request a hearing in your written response to the Notice or if you fail to respond in writing to the Notice by the deadline above, you waive your right to a hearing. If you so choose, you may be represented by counsel at the hearing. The procedures for Board Administrative Enforcement Proceedings can be found in Board Regulation No. 2 ("Regulation No. 2"), Subpart E, as well as the memorandum entitled "Procedures for Administrative Enforcement Proceedings that Supplement Board Regulation No. 2." For your reference, Regulation No. 2, including the supplemental memo, is also enclosed. These materials contain instructions on how to submit documents and filings to the Board.

As required by Regulation No. 2, Paragraph 2.13(b), a copy of the enclosed Notice has been served upon the Board's General Counsel.

As you are aware, alternatively, you may resolve this matter by entering into a settlement agreement with the Board and paying a civil monetary penalty of $250. If you wish to settle this matter, please contact me as soon as possible.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
/s Erin Ambrose
