A. The Requirement to file a Statement of Financial Interests

Section 20-610 of the Ethics Code requires certain individuals to file a Statement of Financial Interests with the Board. The Statement of Financial Interests required by the Code is also known as the "City Form." The City Form discloses certain financial information about the filer for the preceding calendar year.

Pursuant to the Ethics Code, "[m]embers and executive directors of boards and commissions that exercise significant powers of government, as determined by the Board of Ethics by regulation" are required to file the City Form. Code § 20-610(1)(e). Accordingly, the Board has determined by regulation that members and executive directors of the Tax Review Board must file a City Form. Regulation No. 3, ¶ 3.5(y).

An individual who is required to file a City Form must do so by May 1 in any year in which they hold office and by May 1 of the year after they leave such office. Code § 20-610(1);

Regulation No. 3, ¶ 3.7(a). An individual who is required to file a City Form but who takes office after April 1 must file the City Form within 30 days of taking office. Regulation No. 3, ¶ 3.7(b).

B. Penalties for violations

The failure to timely file a City Form is a violation of Ethics Code Section 20-610(1). A violation of Section 20-610(1) is subject to a civil monetary penalty of $1,000. Code § 20-612(1), 20-1302.

6. Respondent filed a City Form for 2024 on August 8, 2025, 99 days after the required deadline of May 1, 2025.

VI. ALLEGED VIOLATION: COUNT I - VIOLATION OF ETHICS CODE § 20-610(1)

7. Paragraphs 1-6 are incorporated by reference fully as though the same were herein set forth at length.

8. By failing to file a City Form for 2024 by May 1, 2025, Respondent violated the Ethics Code Section 20-610(1).
