I still don't understand why the Ethics Board is going through all of this. This is much ado about nothing. I filed my financial statements. I have no violations or conflicts of interest. Is this really worth all of this exerted time and resources? It seems like a waste of everybody's time to me. I don't understand what this Ethics Board wants from me.

I have consulted with the Hearing Officer and the 30-day extension will be granted. A formal order will follow.
